

SLIDE 2.4

LESSON 2 - INVEST IN YOURSELF

Connecting Occupations and Human Capital

Examples of Occupations	Examples of Human Capital
Automotive technician/mechanic	Mathematics and communications skills plus trade school, apprenticeship, and ability to work with special tools
Carpenter	Mathematics and communications skills plus trade school, apprenticeship, and ability to work with special tools
Family doctor	Mathematics and communications skills plus medical school, internship, residency, and ability to use special tools and equipment
Graphic designer	Mathematics and communications skills plus community college or trade school and ability to work with special tools
Interpreter	Mathematics and communications skills plus college degree
Mechanical engineer	Mathematics and communications skills plus college degree and ability to work with special tools
Retail sales clerk	Mathematics and communications skills

LEARNING, EARNING, AND INVESTING FOR A NEW GENERATION © COUNCIL FOR ECONOMIC EDUCATION, NEW YORK, NY